Girl Scouts doing a good turn in their communities
 As Girl Scouts across the globe celebrate the October 31 birthdate of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scout Movement, it is timely to reflect upon the law that all Girl Scouts pledge to live by.
 The Girl Scout Law states, "I will do my best to be honest and fair, friendly and helpful, considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do, and to respect myself and others, respect authority, use resources wisely, make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout."
 Many Girl Scouts, including volunteers, can recite the Girl Scout Law from heart. Our law is more than just words. It is the heart of our movement. Girl Scouts breathe life into the law each and every day through active participation in initiatives that make the world a better place.
 One such initiative is Good Turn for Goodwill, a service project that benefits those served by Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana. From now until November 15, Girl Scouts across central Indiana will be collecting clothing, electronics, toys and games, among other items, to donate to their local Goodwill stores. Through this initiative, Girl Scouts learn how to use resources wisely. Plus, they contribute to their communities because Goodwill will use their donations to fund employment and educational services, including jobs for people facing employment barriers and providing assistance to first-time, low-income moms enrolled in Goodwill's maternal and infant health program.
 Please visit GirlScoutsIndiana.org for more information on Good Turn for Goodwill and other Girl Scout initiatives in your communities.
 Sincerely, Deborah Hearn Smith, CEO, Girl Scouts of Central Indiana
