Scout News: On The Eagle Trail

Cambridge City Scout leaders are busy preparing for a celebration. Each February Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts alike set aside time to celebrate the inception of the Boy Scouts of America.

Scouting began in England in 1907-08 by Gen. Baden-Powell. He was a 50-year-old bachelor and war hero. He was also known for having unusual ideas about military scouting. After writing a book called Aide to Scouting, a military handbook, he noticed that many young men were using his book as a guide to outdoor activities.

He began to ponder how he could convert this book designed for the military, to a peacetime book for boys and young men scouting. The official birthday of the Boy Scouts of America is 1910. Today the BSA is one of the largest youth organizations in the world with more than 2.4 million youth members and nearly a million adult volunteers.

February is also the month that many scouts are promoted to the next rank. This advancement in rank is not taken lightly. Each advancing scout has worked hard and has met certain requirements to allow him to advance to the next rank.

This year's celebration will take place February 22nd at 6:30 PM in the grade school cafeteria. A bridging ceremony will be held for advancing scouts, leaders, and parents. This year Cambridge Cub Scouts has three second year Webelos that will advance into Boy Scouts. Dustin Bates, Aiden Wissler and Daniel Bogue will receive their arrow of light award, the highest award given to Cub Scouts.

There will be an Italian style pitch in dinner with baked spaghetti, lasagna and ravioli. If you have a scout aged boy that would enjoy scouting, camping, fishing, hiking, and much more. We invite you to join us to see and learn how scouting can enrich the life of your young man. If you intend to eat please bring a simple covered dish. Let us know when you arrive.

Other events in the near future February 16 scouts will be traveling to new Paris Ohio for an evening of snow tubing, February 11 Cambridge City Cub Scouts will be attending monster jam at the Lucas oil Stadium in Indianapolis. March 4 at Manlove Park scouts will be holding their 2017 Pinewood Derby.
